OWOSSO, FRIDAY, NOV. 24, 1882.

Entered at the Post Office in Owosso, Mich., for transmission through the mails as second class mail matter.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

LOCAL NEWS

Thanksgiving on Thursday of next week. Read the notice of the school Board for wood.

See the notices, Guardian sale and Foreclosure notice.

Axford is doing a flourishing business at his wood yard.

Our subscription list has been greatly increased this week.

Mr. Adam Byerly has his new large barn nearly completed.

S. F. Smith Esq., visited Holly on business, on Wednesday.

Remember THE TIMES office when you want tax receipts, order books, etc.

Westlake is busy these days, but can always stop long enough to take your order.

Mr. E. R. Hutchins has moved his law office into the room back of the National Bank.

Ye editor has been absent part of the week on business in Detroit and Grand Rapids.

An immense amount of through freight for eastern points is being shipped over the D. & M.

We counted nearly 150 freight cars on the side tracks of the railroads one day this week.

Thursday was a cold, stormy day, more or less snow flying through the air from time to time.

There is to be a Sunday School Concert at the Congregational Church Sunday evening Dec. 24.

This has been a splendid fall for out door work, but there are yet a good many unprepared for winter.

Mrs. C. P. Parkill was at East Saginaw, yesterday in attendance at the District meeting of the W. C. T. U.

We want a good, live, wide awake correspondent in every city, village and township in Shiawassee county.

Rev. Mr. Wilson will begin his services, as pastor of the Congregational Church in this city, on Sunday, December 10th.

Rev. Mr. Leonard, pastor of the Baptist Church will give an expository discourse on the 87th Psalm next Sunday morning.

Rev. Mr. Farnum, late pastor of the Baptist church, passed through Owosso, on Wednesday evening en route for Lansing.

Large quantities of farm produce are being marketed in Owosso. Farmers know they can get good prices here, hence the rush.

Next Sunday evening discourses will be preached from both the Methodist and Baptist pulpits on the same theme—text, Ex. 20:4.

We trust the members of the order of Good Templars will remember the District meeting at Laingsburg, on Tuesday, the 28th inst.

We want 500 new subscribers before January first. Friends of THE TIMES if you will each help a little we can get more than that number.

The official canvass for state Senator occurs next Tuesday. The Board consists of the county Clerks, Sheriffs and Judges of Probate of the two counties.

The ladies of the Episcopal society will give a social at the residence of Dr. J. H. Champion this (Friday) evening. The public are most cordially invited.

We note with great pleasure the adoption by the people of the amendment to the Constitution, increasing the salary of the Circuit Judges to $2,500 a year.

The state canvass of the election returns takes place at Lansing, Tuesday, Dec. 12. The Board consists of the Governor, Secretary of State and State Treasurer.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held in the Baptist Church Thursday, Nov. 30th, at 11 o'clock. Rev. S. Reed of the Methodist Church will preach the sermon.

Mr. H. E. Aiken, of North Amherst, Ohio, one of the subscribers to THE TIMES, is visiting this week at the residence of his brother, Mr. N. B. Aiken, of Caledonia.

St. Charles Reporter: Paul Roth the popular cutter from McBain's merchant tailoring establishment, of Owosso, was in town this week and secured several orders for winter suits.

We have rarely heard a more interesting and instructive sermon than that of Rev. Mr. Leonard at the Baptist Church last Sabbath evening. Subject, Christ in the garden of Gethsemane.

It is rumored on our streets that Mr. Beardsley, for many years the popular Station Agent of the D. G. H. & M. railway, is about to vacate his position. The public are considerably excited over the matter. Mr. B. has always been a favorite among the business men of Owosso and any change in his relations to the public will be sadly regretted by our people. We hope the rumor may prove only an idle tale, for we do not believe it is possible for the company to fill Mr. Beardsley's place with a man who would be as satisfactory to the public.

We see that Loring's stock of holiday goods have arrived and they make a beautiful show in his store.

Miss Ivah Black, who has been quite seriously sick for some days past, is, we are pleased to learn, convalescing.

In another column will be found an article of interest to School boards, written by the efficient Secretary of the Board of County Examiners, Geo. W. Sickles.

Coal mining seems to be booming at the Corunna mines, and a large addition to the working force in the mines has recently arrived from Ohio.

The new depot at the J. L. & S. is being finished very rapidly. It has been needed for a long time and when completed will be a great convenience to the public.

The regular Thanksgiving Day service will be held at Christ's church next Thursday morning at 10:30 a. m. with sermon appropriate to the occasion by the Rector, and celebration of the holy communion. All are cordially invited.

The Farmer's Review comes to our table this week enlarged and greatly improved in appearance. This issue contains a large amount of interesting reading matter. Send to them, at Chicago, for a sample copy.

The new brick house of Warren Woodard, on the street leading to the Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee depot is approaching completion and when finished will really be one of the most beautiful residences in the city.

Mr. C. E. Abbott and family will occupy the rooms recently vacated by E. R. Hutchins. Mr. Abbott is breaking a number of colts and we understand is soon to bring a number of horses here from Detroit, which he will drive during the winter.

Some person a little cranky, or who must have been enjoying a Rip Van Winkle sleep, dropped a letter into the post office Saturday last addressed to "James A. Garfield, President of the United States of North America, District of Columbia, D. C."

Mr. E. R. Hutchins has removed his office from the second story of the Bank block to the rooms in rear of the National Bank, the entrance being from Mason street just west of Washington. There he has pleasant and very commodious quarters.

Mr. Samuel House and wife, formerly residents of Bennington and early settlers of that town, have been visiting friends and relatives hereabouts this week. Mr. H. expresses considerable surprise at the growth of Owosso; but says that many familiar faces are missing.

We learn that the ladies of the Congregational Church are making preparations for a Bazaar, to be held at an early date; the proceeds to apply on the Church furnishing fund. It is hoped the attendance may be large and the patronage liberal. The date and place will be announced later.

Mr. Fred W. Slocum, the genial editor of the Holly Advertiser, was married at Linden, on Wednesday evening, to Miss Eva Leonard. The happy couple went west on the evening train on the Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee railway for a brief bridal tour. We extend our congratulations.

We learn that Mr. Burhans has disposed of his interest in the firm of Burhans & Dawes to Messrs. L. A. Hamblin and E. M. Miller. The business of the house is as good as that of any other house in Owosso, and we congratulate the proprietors on their good fortune in securing so good a business opening.

The entertainment given by Mrs. Emma Barnes at Opera Hall on Tuesday evening was very satisfactory to the large audience that assembled to greet her. She is a fine reader, has a voice of extraordinary compass, and possesses fine elocutionary power, which she knows how to use to the very best advantage. The music, too, was excellent.

On Friday night occurred one of the most remarkable electric storms that is of record. It extended all over this country and portions of Europe. So powerful were the electrical currents that they seriously interrupted with the electric telegraph in various parts of the country. There was, also, brilliant displays of so called "Northern Lights" on Saturday and Sunday evenings and a display at an early hour Monday morning which baffles all description. Surely the workings of Nature are wondrous.

We wish to suggest to the young men and boys, who are in the habit of gathering in front of the churches on Sunday evenings and on other occasions when religious gatherings are in session, that it is certainly not gentlemanly and that by so doing they are not building themselves up in public estimation. We know that the boys enjoy a little quiet mischief and that the enjoyment of this is not with malicious intent, yet where this spirit leads the boys to do things which result in the annoyance of those who go to church to worship, it is very reprehensible, and should be at once discontinued.

Speaking of a speech made by the editor of THE TIMES, at Newport, N. H., Thursday evening, Nov. 1, the Republican Champion says: "Hon. George M. Dewey, of Michigan, had a good house on Thursday evening, whose attention he closely held during a candid and lucid explanation of the operations of the tariff laws, giving as clear an explanation of the effects of our protective laws as it has ever been our fortune to hear. Mr. Dewey is a careful observer of men and things and therefore able to treat of facts in a convincing manner."

Do not fail to note the new ads in this paper.

Our streets present a lively appearance now days.

Mr. Ed. Copas, of Detroit, has been visiting Owosso friends this week.

The following letter shows something of the extent and amount of business done by the Mich. S. M. & O. Co.:

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 21, 1882.

Mr. C. E. SHATTUCK, MGR
MICH. SEWING MACHINE & ORGAN CO.,
OWOSSO, MICHIGAN.

Dear Sir:—The piano (C. D. Pease & Co., style) came yesterday in good shape. My daughter was, of course, anxious to try it and to have its qualities tested. Her teacher and other musical experts pronounce its tone perfect and its construction beyond criticism. I can vouch for the elegant finish of its case, for in my business, as you know, cabinet work is a special feature.

I am much pleased that I decided on the "Pease", and congratulate you on the handling of so fine an instrument.

Yours truly,
R. N. JOHNSON.

That our people should be on their guard to prevent the spread of infectious and contagious diseases is not a matter of doubt. In all parts of the country diphtheria, scarlet fever and small-pox seem to be spreading and so prevalent have the first two become in Boston that public funerals are prohibited. These diseases are also very prevalent in many Michigan towns, some in our immediate vicinity and the utmost caution should be exercised to prevent their introduction and spread in this city. To that end all our streets, by-ways, lots and out buildings should be put into the best possible condition and all other steps, especially the free use of disinfectants resorted to that we may be protected from these terrible scourges. To this end, at a meeting of the Board of Health on Saturday night, the following resolution was adopted and the Secretary instructed to furnish copies for publication in the city papers:

Resolved, That the Health officer be and he is hereby instructed to make such an examination in all cases where persons are reported sick with contagious or infectious diseases, as he shall deem necessary to determine whether it is necessary to quarantine the premises, and to take such other steps as he may deem necessary to protect to the uttermost possible degree the public health.

Married.
HEMSTREET-WICKHAM—At the residence of J. T. Wickham, uncle of the bride, Oct. 31, 1882, by Rev. Y. Hurd, of Otto N. Y., Mr. Charles Hemstreet of Otto, to Miss Jennie Wickham, of Owosso. A select company witnessed the ceremony, after which a fine supper was served and a pleasant evening enjoyed by all. May success ever attend them.

Advertised Letters.
The following letters remained uncalled for in the Owosso Post Office for the week ending Nov. 18th, 1882.

Washington Shinebery, Miss Matie Shay, George Osborne, Grace Everts.
Persons calling for the above will please ask for "advertised letters."

L. A. HAMBLIN, P. M.
Shiawassee Co., Agricultural Association.

There will be a meeting of the executive Board of the above Association in the Council rooms, Owosso, at 10 o'clock on Monday, Dec. 4, 1882, for the purpose of closing up the business of the year and organizing the new Board. The following persons elected as directors will please bear this in mind and be present: J. E. Van Hosen, Warren, Woodard, John L. Mahin, E. G. Morrice, E. J. Cook, N. McBain and Thos. Nolan.

Respectfully yours,
A. LEE WILLIAMS,
Secretary.
